

[Example: A Dealer Member with a December year-end]

This diagram explains the treatment of the year-end audit adjustments, as well as the IFRS adjustments. As depicted in the diagram below, there is no need to reflect the year-end audit adjustments to the first MFR under IFRS. This is because the opening IFRS retained earnings would have reflected the year-end audit adjustments.

